Programme terms and conditions:

To join the Gina Conway Loyalty Programme and to gain points each time you have a hair or spa service, buy Aveda/Murad products or gift vouchers you simply need to let reception know and provide an active email address so that we can update and reward you for being a member. You can also sign up online at ginaconway.co.uk and we will mail your card. By providing your details you are giving us permission to contact you in relation to Bliss rewards, latest services, promotional offers or exclusive events that are of interest to you. Change of email address must be notified to us. Membership and unused points will automatically expire if you unsubscribe from email communications or after one year of inactivity. You will need to be re-enrolled after this period through a new application; as all points will have been cancelled. All rewards are subject to availability and seasonal changes. The Bliss Rewards card lets you collect points and earn Gina Conway reward £'s (1 £ spent = 1 point earned, each point converts to a £0.05 reward. For example, earn 750 points to receive a Nourish reward worth £37.50). Points are non-transferable and rewards have no cash value outside of the Bliss Rewards scheme. Rewards and reward vouchers are not replaceable if lost, stolen or destroyed and will not be replaced if lost in the mail. If a Member is given a refund or other financial adjustment on any transaction, the points awarded on the transaction will be adjusted accordingly. Accounts or programme points may not be shared or combined. Only individuals may enrol; corporations, groups or associations cannot enrol (as a business). Only the member having a service is eligible for point accumulation and point redemption; fraudulent activity of any kind will result in instant termination of membership. No points will be given for services or products bought before programme start and they cannot be redeemed until credited to a members account. Points are only valid on hair and spa services and Aveda/Murad products in Gina Conway Aveda, not with any affiliate companies. Points will be awarded for Gina Conway gift vouchers purchases but not awarded for gift certificate redemptions, complimentary vouchers, services or products. Members can redeem rewards in a Gina Conway salon upon reaching the qualifying level; Rewards may only be used as full payment. Only one Bliss rewards account can be used per transaction when redeeming rewards. Gina Conway Aveda Salons and Spas reserve the right to vary, suspend or terminate the program upon 28 days of notice, if in our sole discretion we consider that the member has breached the Terms or if the member has supplied false or misleading information, or if we consider that the member has acted improperly.
